

A Graphic Presentation of Two Articles

"Food, Drugs and Poison"

"The New Deal and Advertising"

The first article, by E. Pendleton Herring, appears in Current History, April 1934. The second in Forum and Century, February 1934 presents two points of view. Mrs. Catherine Hackett represents the housewives. John C. Sterling is the spokesman for business

*Charts prepared and lent by U. S.
Food and Drug Administration*

April 4 to April 13, 1934

First floor corridor, Newark Public Library

Third in a series of Exhibits on Modern Problems discussed in current Journals